 Comment: 25X1

a. Report confirms the extension work on the runway and the repair of buildings. According to another report, the runway was extended by 1,600 feet. It is considered positive that the total length of the runway will be about 6,600 feet.

b. The fighters observed at the field on 26 September 1949 probably were only temporarily stationed there. No air unit has been observed at the field.

c. This is the first information on the target date for the completion of the construction work at the field.
